Dear Tiny Thinkers Families,

November is a time for gratitude, kindness, and giving! This month, our little learners will celebrate cultural traditions, practice sharing, and discover the joy of helping others. We are thankful for our families, teachers, and the community we build together.

November Events & Closures

- November 1 — Daylight Saving Time Ends: Set your clocks back one hour on Saturday night.
- November 2–6 — Annual Food Drive: Donate nonperishable foods such as canned fruits, vegetables, tuna, soups, 100% fruit juice, dried fruit, cereal, rice, pasta, and dried beans.
- November 6 — Diwali Celebration (North Hills location only): With help from Tiny Thinkers parent Megha, children will explore the Festival of Lights through diya painting, a ribbon parade, and an introduction to Diwali traditions.
- November 11 — Veterans Day: SCHOOL CLOSED. We honor those who have served our country. Classes resume November 12.
- November 25 — Thanksgiving Feast: Families are invited to contribute a dish for their child's classroom potluck. Sign up with your child's teacher.
- November 26–27 — Thanksgiving Break: SCHOOL CLOSED.

Friendly Reminders

- Tuition: Due on the 1st and 15th; late payments may incur a $35 fee. Exact change is required for cash payments.
- Hours: Regular care is 7:30 AM–5:30 PM; extended care is 6:30–7:30 AM and 5:30–6:00 PM. Follow your authorized schedule; the center closes promptly at 6:00 PM.
- Attendance: Sign your child in and out daily on classroom sheets and applicable CCRC/DCFS forms. Missed signatures result in warnings; three warnings will result in a stay-at-home suspension.
- Pick-Up & Safety: Only authorized adults 18 or older with valid photo ID may pick up children. Keep emergency contacts current with the office.
